We have lived in Gardner for five years, and we plan to raise our children here; therefore, the future of Gardner is important to my wife and me. We are concerned with the direction and logic being used to solve infrastructure and city issues regarding future business growth. I would like to know more about where our community's federal, state, county and city responsibilities begin and end. As Gardner is becoming home to new young families I believe our council needs someone of that demographic to represent them. We would like all Gardner resident's concerns to be heard and questions answered in the handling of future directions, financial obligations and funding.
